CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATIONS ACT."

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 462.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Mainland Wood Fuel Co-operative Association" has this day been incorporated as an Association under the "Co-operative Associations Act" and that the denomination of its shares is fifty dollars each.

The registered office of the Association will be situate at 503-6 Rogers Building, 470 Granville Street, Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twenty-first day of September, one thousand nine hundred and forty-two.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Companies.

The objects of the Association are:—

(a.) To give effect to the orderly and economical distribution of sawdust and millwood for fuel purposes, and any other products suitable for fuel purposes:

(b.) To create zones by dividing into areas or districts the Cities of Vancouver, New Westminster, and North Vancouver, and the Municipalities of West Vancouver, District of North Vancouver, Burnaby, Port Moody, Surrey, Coquitlam, and Delta:

(c.) To obtain as members of the Association the owners of all sawmills producing sawdust and millwood for fuel purposes, and all other producers of sawdust and millwood for fuel purposes within the cities of and municipalities aforesaid, or any other city and municipality tributary to and distributing sawdust and millwood for fuel purposes in the areas set out in subsection (b) hereof:

(d.) To comply with and carry out or give effect to any Order in Council or order or direction of the Deputy Administrator (Wood Fuel) of the Dominion of Canada (hereinafter referred to as the "Administrator"), or any other governmental authority exercising jurisdiction over the producers of sawdust and millwood fuel:

(e.) To organize, establish, and maintain an "Adjustment Bureau" or other centre as may be approved by the Administrator or other Government authority of the Dominion of Canada for the purposes of assisting in or facilitating the taking of or arranging orders for sawdust and millwood for fuel and the distribution thereof:

(f.) To make such levies, assessments, rates, or charges (hereinafter referred to as "assessments") on the members of the Association and in such manner as may be determined by the Association or its directors, and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, to levy and assess against the members of the Association such "assessments" on a monthly basis, having regard, amongst other things, to the number of units of sawdust and cords of millwood produced, such "assessments" to be payable monthly or at such other times as the Association or the Board of Directors may deem just and equitable; and further to provide at the end of each such year, or such other period as may be determined, for the adjustment of such "assessments" in such manner as the Association may decide:

(g.) To diffuse information respecting the production and distribution of sawdust and millwood, the regulations or orders of the governmental authorities, and to impress upon the consumers of sawdust and millwood the necessity of keeping the Association informed of their stocks in hand, requirements, and the placing of orders during different seasons of the year to ensure an adequate supply to the consumers:

(h.) To procure information for members in respect of the production and distribution of sawdust and millwood for fuel, in so far as such information may be useful in carrying out the objects of the Association, and also to consider all questions and give effect to all decisions of the Association relating to the objects herein set forth:

(i.) To act as arbitrator in the settlement of disputes amongst members in respect of the Association, its objects and the rights, duties, and obligations of members thereunder:

(j.) To borrow moneys which for the time being and from time to time may be required for the purposes of the Association, but the total amount of such borrowings shall not at any one time exceed the annual fixed revenue or the amount which may be reasonably anticipated from the members of the Association:

(k.) To do all such other lawful things as are incidental or conducive to the achievement of the above objects or any of them.

(j.) To construct, maintain, improve, develop, work, manage, carry out, or control any roads, ways, logging-railways, tramways, branches, or sidings, bridges, reservoirs, water courses, wharves, foreshore leases, manufactories, warehouses, electric works, shops, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interest, and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, carrying out, or control thereof:

(k.) To construct, maintain, improve, and operate booms and any other works for collecting driving, rafting, towing, sorting, delivering, and for all purposes directed to the reception, safe-keeping, carriage, and delivery of timber, logs, shingle-bolts, pulp-wood, lumber, and any other products of timber and wood:

(l.) To undertake and transact all kinds of agency or business permitted by the "Companies Act" which an ordinary individual may legally undertake, and to acquire agencies, and to act as agents or factors for any person, firm, or corporation:

(m.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company, wheresoever incorporated, carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(n.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing of profits; union of interest, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company, wheresoever incorporated, carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on, engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(o.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares, stock, debentures, or other securities in any other company, wheresoever incorporated, having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly to benefit the Company, and to sell or reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(p.) To enter into any arrangement with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(q.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or work necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(r.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular, by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(s.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, issue, and to borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company may see fit by promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(t.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(u.) To carry on any other business permitted by the "Companies Act," whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill:
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.
